TAC Meeting: No substantive changes but 28 proposals were considered. Lengthy discussions regarding the HVAC industry and GFCIs/mini splits. The TAC vote is not binding – it’s only a recommendation. The Chief Electrical Inspector, Director, and Governor are the deciding votes.

The current State Chief Electrical Inspector, Wayne Molesworth, retires on June 30. Recruitment for the position is ongoing, and an interim chief will serve during this time.

City of Bellevue/John Grotte

Reviews are down and the biggest projects are residential – especially near light rail stations.

City of Seattle/Dave Rankin

Staff are currently working on amendments to the 2026 Electrical Code. There’s been a slow down in plan review and major projects have all but disappeared.
